Events will always be a part of the human experience.

Unfortunately for the time being they have changed a little bit. Until audiences are confident that in-person gatherings are safe, event planners are adopting a new reality which sees video play a major role in event production.

Prior to Covid-19, Addrenaline Inc. was already the vendor of record for a key group of companies as they began to make their town halls and training events accessible to employees around the world.

Now that the world has changed, Addrenaline's service is in demand now more than ever. We are helping event planners and organizations adapt in the short term and get back to doing business right now.

Whether you're an event planner using WebEx, ZOOM, GoToMeeting, Microsoft Teams, Facebook LIVE, Vimeo or Skype, Addrenaline has the technology and experience to save you a significant amount of your event budget while not sacrificing the skills and experience it takes to ensure your live feed and your event run flawlessly.

We worked with Addrenaline on an intro video for our 2000+ person event. Kyle is extremely talented at what he does and has a great personality to bring out the best of our interviewees. We were able to merge his creative experiences with our initial ideas to help us dream up a finished product we were delighted with!
